

MEDIAWEEK LISTS ALL RADIO RAWARDS WINNERS

The four provincial-category RAWARDS won by SEA FM, of Southport, were: Best sports presenter (Les Jones); best program director (Guy Dobson); best station-produced comedy segment (Peter Maden); and best sales promotion ("An Apple for the Teacher").

The three metropolitan RAWARDS won by 3AW Melbourne were: Best sports events coverage (Rex Hunt and Shane Healy); best on-air team (Bruce Mansfield and Philip Brady); and best station sales achievement.

For 2GN Goulburn in the country category, the three were: Best sports presenter (Graeme Northey); best news presenter (Jane Turner); and best program director (Brian James).

For 2XL Cooma in the country category: Brian White Memorial RAWARD (Kaaren Latham); best station promotion ("The Guru's $100,000 Birthday Challenge") and best music personality (Peter James).

For WAVE FM: Best sports events coverage, best documentary and Telecom single major specific community project.

These stations won two metropolitan RAWARDS each (full details below): FOX FM Melbourne, 2WS Sydney, 2DAY FM Sydney, Triple M Sydney and 6PR Perth. These provincial stations won two each: Coast Rock FM Gosford, i98FM Wollongong and 2NZ Inverell. In the country category, 2EC Bega won two.

A record 600 entries were made for this year's RAWARDS, in the three categories: metropolitan; provincial (over 75,000 in the city) and country (under 75,000).

The number of bookings at this year's Presentation Dinner is also a record 600. MEDIAWEEK has printed 600 copies of this special report. The results will also be in the current MEDIAWEEK, sample copies of which will be available to convention delegates tomorrow (Sunday).

The publisher and editor, Philip Luker, who is at the dinner and will be at the convention tomorrow, would be pleased to take bookings from any station or other company that does not subscribe.
